Dallas Mayor Laura Miller Opens
Trinity River Levee Top Trail

Opening Event Sponsored by Bank of America

Dallas Mayor Laura Miller joined over 300 sports enthusiasts from the Cross Country Club of Dallas, the Dallas Off Road Bicycle Association, Dallas Fire Rescue-Recruit Class #276, Bank of America, the City of Dallas and the Wyndham Anatole Hotel to open the Trinity River Levee Top Trail today. The 6.2 mile natural surface loop trail, located at Trammell Crow Park, 3700 Sylvan Avenue, offers natural vistas and a striking view of the city.

“We are fortunate to have this beautiful, unique trail in the midst of Downtown Dallas,” said Mayor Miller. “The Trinity River Levee Top Trail offers another opportunity for Dallas citizens to stay fit. I encourage everyone to take part in Lighten Up Big D!, the city’s fitness initiative.”

“The Trinity River Project is a vital piece of the economic development of Dallas, and Bank of America has been a long time supporter of the project”, said Gillian Breidenbach, senior vice president, Bank of America Dallas. “Today’s event is just the beginning of things to come in the redevelopment of this project and we look forward to the next phases.”

The trail opening was sponsored by Bank of America. Other event sponsors included Comcast, Cooper Aerobics, Wyndham Anatole, Trammell Crow Company, KB Home, Trinity Commons Foundation, Something So Sensational, Friends of the Old Trinity Trail and Lighten Up Big D!
